The Guiding Principles of CHE

Development
CHE is a long-term process that respectfully develops the most valuable resource in the community – the people themselves.

Community Ownership
The community learns to do their own problem identification, prioritizing, solving and evaluation.

Wholistic & Integrated
Many community problems and their solutions are a blend of heart, mind, soul and body.

Multiplication
The CHE process is designed so each community can be an example and mentor to other communities. Disciples make disciples.

CHE is used in over 100 countries.

A few of the hundreds of organizations and denominations who have CHE-trained members:

- Medical Ambassadors Int.
- Joni and Friends Int.
- World Relief
- CMFI
- World Challenge
- SIL International
- Life in Abundance
- World Gospel Mission
- Cedarville University
- Butler University

- Baptist
- Evangelical Free
- Presbyterian
- United Methodist
- Nazarene
- Assemblies of God
- Christian Church
- Christian Missionary Alliance
- Mennonite
- Anglican

Global CHE Network
info@CHEnetwork.org
CHEnetwork.org

"CHE has improved the harmony between the Gospel and our missions endeavors."
Mike Niemi
Missions and College Pastor
at MeadowBrook Church

"I like CHE because outsiders can’t develop a community, the people of the community need to develop it for themselves."
Benito Joseph, Haitian Pastor
Grand Savann Christian Church, Haiti

Will she have clean water?
Who is her god?
Will she ever go to school?
Will her children face the same questions?

"...CHE training has been the single, most successful ‘life changer’ for the community."
Jason Law, Founder/CEO of 1Mission
Jesus was concerned about the whole person.

CHE nourishes the whole person in a holy way.

CHE
Community Health Evangelism
--training disciples to make disciples--

Critical Needs Addressed By CHE

- Evangelism
- Under-Nutrition
- Unhealthy Water
- Disciple-Making
- Women's Issues
- Sustainable Food Sources
- Child Mortality
- Deficient Incomes
- Inadequate Sanitation
- Infectious Diseases
- Educational Deficiencies
- HIV/AIDS
- Inadequate Housing
- Moral Values
- Disability Bias
- Hopelessness

"If we apply these principles effectively, CHE will transform the way we do missions. In fact, the transformation has already begun.

Doug Lucas
President of Team Expansion, Founder/Editor of Brigada"

---

Vision Seminar (2 days)

The Vision Seminar uses small-group interaction, problem solving and self-discovery. It introduces the why and how of the CHE model as practitioners have used it in communities overseas. It increases understanding of the challenges, best practices, and potential results of the CHE process. It also explores how CHE principles can impact your own discipleship and neighborhood.

Training of Trainers 1 (1 week)

The Training of Trainers 1 (TOT1) provides the foundation needed to begin the process of implementing CHE in an international community:

- partnering with a CHE practitioner in the field
- determining an international community to begin a CHE program
- training others in CHE, at home as well as abroad

In addition, participants will receive a DVD with thousands of resources such as manuals, picture books, posters and lessons on scores of topics.

"The CHE Training was not what we expected; it was better! Interactive, experiential, and fully grounded in Scripture, it stretched us regarding discipleship and its emphasis on proactive, wholistic community development.

Dave Kountz, Executive Pastor, Blue Ridge Community Church"