

Communication Specialist

Full-Time Position: 40 hours/week
LOCATION: Tucson, AZ

The Global CHE Network is seeking an energetic and creative Communications Specialist. This position is responsible for writing and assisting in the development and implementation of GCN's communication and public relations plan.

The position reports to the Operations Facilitator and will assist the Service Team with support, coordination, and trafficking of publications (online and print), social media, website content management, logo/brand protocols, and other communications media to effectively promote the network's mission and initiatives among key stakeholders, including members of the network, donors/funders, and the service team. This position is truly for someone who understands both the art of communications and can compose a compelling story about GCN.

Experience:

- Bachelor's Degree in communications, English, journalism, marketing, or related fields
- 2 years minimum experience in related position
- Excellent communication skills and the ability to successfully develop ongoing relationships within a culturally diverse work environment and community
- Ability to adjust to multiple demands and shifting priorities
- Ability to work well independently and collaborate effectively within a team
- Strong writing and proofreading skills
- Extensive knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Working knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite, MS Expressions, Mail Chimp (or similar)
- Demonstrated experience in web production, CMS, HTML, and design and layout
- Experience in nonprofit sector a plus

About The Global CHE Network (GCN)

The Global CHE Network (GCN) is an association of people and organizations working together to strengthen each individual ministry and expand the CHE movement. Network members from more than 650 different organizations in 125 countries share useful ideas, encourage each other, and coordinate their efforts to optimize the use of limited resources. (www.chenetwork.org)

Community Health Evangelism (CHE) is a wholistic ministry strategy that seamlessly integrates evangelism, discipleship, and church planting with community health and development. Through CHE ministries, people become followers of Jesus, and whole communities are lifted out of cycles of poverty and disease. The purpose of CHE work is to exalt Christ in every aspect of life. We seek to be obedient to everything Christ commanded, including both the great commission and the great commandment (Matthew 28:19, 20; 22:36-38) and to reflect the depth and breadth of His kingdom plan. Church planting, disease prevention, and poverty alleviation are all intended outcomes of the work of making disciples of all nations.

Please send resume to Bryan Benz (bjettb@gmail.com).